

Reigate - Information Sheet

Centre Details:

Age range: 8 - 16
 Dates: 11th July – 15th August
 Nearest station: Reigate
 Time to London Victoria station: 35 minutes
 Centre Capacity: 280

Location:

Our Reigate centre is based on the extensive rural campus of the Royal Alexandra and Albert School, which combines an excellent countryside location with the perfect facilities for an outstanding summer school. The school has over 200 acres of land with three lakes and superb views of the surrounding countryside.

It is set in the picturesque North Downs of Surrey, but is only 25 miles south of central London. Both Heathrow and Gatwick airports are within easy reach, as is England's south coast. The nearest town to the school is Redhill, which offers good shopping facilities. Redhill is a 20 - 30 minute walk through the campus.

Accommodation:

There are several boarding houses around the campus in a range of rooms of 2 – 4 beds with shared facilities. All houses have been recently refurbished to a high standard. Each house accommodates approximately 40 people and boys and girls must be housed separately, there are large, comfortable common areas in each boarding house with small kitchens for use by the group leaders and staff only.

General Information:

Reigate is equipped with excellent on-site facilities including a heated indoor swimming pool, covered area for sports such as basketball, tennis courts and a modern sports hall. In addition there is a large school hall which is used for student assemblies and several of the evening activities including the discos and talent shows. There is a large and bright dining hall for students to take their meals. The school is surrounded by acres of countryside, including several playing fields for outdoor sports such as football and volleyball.
